Run 1939 – Pythagorarses's City Crawl tribute to Michiko

Well ... I suppose I can write what I like ... what a top run ... it was more toprier than top — it was top city!

Enough self appraisal — a fine Trinity pack gathered at the memorial garden with an eagerness to get this exercise over and done with so some imbibing may commence. The walk meandered through the city to the Cruise terminal and then along the boardwalk marina to a drink stop at the Pier ... most made it—with the exception of Pylon and Mofo and Layback—the former because the whole trail reminded her too much of work ... and the latter because of his committed inability to follow trail anywhere at any time.

Some sadness in recalling the terrible murder 19 years ago of an innocent Japanese woman—a stubby or two were raised to Michiko and hope was given that her spirit is at peace—I think she would have enjoyed the company and good humour of the pack.

GM called charges, ...PissPot was an esteemed visitor and the Keg was bountiful and delivered with the inspired countenance of Trinity's own and incomparable Dunno. Some nosh was had and the pack disappeared into the night with a warm Hash Glow
