Run 1944 – Nico’s Nasty

Seventeen hashes in all were there,

Nico was our illustrious hare.

On the street and down the road,

We walked, we ran, our feet our trusty mode.

It was Ramsey Drive for an early drink stop,

Nothing fancy – just the usual slop.

On home, barely a sweat from any pore,

Extracted and I complaining, we really needed more!

Snacks, drinks, in verbal diarrhoea we wallowed,

Circle, charges and raffles as usual followed.

Delicious Italian rissoles, salad and snags,

Excess fruit ended up in doggy bags.

Thanks to the hare and his trusting mum,

Watch this space
for many more to come.

The Japanese Invade Malaysia

As the founding members of mother Hash were all British, the club disbanded upon the arrival in Malaysia of the Japanese. The War took its toll, and "G" – the round and jolly Father of the Chapter, was killed in action in Singapore in 1942. At the end of the War it was as much in tribute to the memory of "G" that the reformation of the Hash House Harriers came about. Eric Galvin, 'Horse' Thompson, 'Torch' Bennett and Philip Whickens along with Cecil Lee set up the regular Monday runs once more and in August 1946 the first post-War event took place in the form of a fairly gentle trot round the Selangor Race Course. The tin bath for ice, drinking mugs and two carrying bags which were the only supplies the Hash owned prior to the War, were reinstated on the strength of a claim for War loss!

Two men are out just fishing quietly and drinking beer. Almost silently, so as not to scare the fish, Bob says, 'I think I'm gonna divorce my wife ..... she hasn't spoken to me in over 2 months.'

Charles continues slowly sipping his beer, then thoughtfully says,.....: 'You better think it over, Bob - Women like that are hard to find.'
