Run 1952 – Southside Sheridan Spectacular

This week's Run was turned on by the lovely Prickle Magnet and the gracious Helmet —The HOFF of hillside watch fame, for a rollicking Hill and water-side run through the wilds of Forest Gardens. The pack assembled with a robust announcement from Stroker - but faltered for a moment to allow DV8 to take a pee.

The mob set on trail through hills and dales and what a pack of runners ... leaving the Tiny Tool in their wake.

Modnoc and besty DV8 found love in the hills in the form of a dwelling void of the pressures of life, and dreamed of that happy place they could call home with no outside influences like other people.

.... Anyway back to realty.

The runners returned with the course being well praised for Qld arrows not those NSW arrows, false trails to die for with the most awesome regroup mid run so everyone was reminded why they walk. Modnoc gave the run 9.5

Hash visitors Wee Wee, Champion and Sniffer were welcomed and engaged the group with stories of Hash meets gone wrong back in the day where 0.08 was ok but still missed the mark in the eyes of the arresting constable.

Circle was called .. no one cared so charges were layed thick and fast Moddy, Snice, Dunno, Nico, DV8, Pythag, Flatulence, Layback, Pylon, Royal Tee, Mofo, Helmet, Prickle Magnet, Wee Wee, Champion, Sniffer all welcomed to a down down. Followed by plenty of song and tongue in cheek moments for the pack.

Pythag threatened a no nuts charge, Prickle took a Sicky and was congratulated on her commitment to putting on a great run and yummy tucker consumed with zest by all.

All in All ...Top Run the 3rd for th e South Side, Keep it up Hashers.
