Run 1956 – Lesson’s Redlynch Rambling Romp

We all gathered at Lesson’s in preparedness for a good run/walk. The Hare, about to divulge our route, was drowned out by the raucous crowd, who were swiftly brought into line with her teaching experience in how to control unruly groups.

We headed out, on and up, and up and up – through the head high guinea grass – snake deterrent gear may have been appropriate! Then down, down, down – unfortunately no drinks at the bottom of the first gully! Then up and up – by this stage I’m sure all you Hasher’s who didn’t attend get that we were up and down hills and through good shiggy for the first stage of our Run. Then we came into Gangbang territory – following the train lines and finding out all about the history and reasoning behind how things were built and tunnel comparisons between Oz and NZ.

After nearly an hour and all that up and downing, the drink stop left without quenching the thirst of the final four and was not let it be forgotten when we finally arrived home – but where was Moddy, DV8 and Virgin Moira? They went straight to the drink stop and were supposed to just turn around and come home. Lost up a hill, lost down a gully, no and no – lost in a cul-de-sac? Yes! But they finally made it and we got on with the rest of the evening.

We circled in the circle, we cheered at all the appropriate moments, we even had a naming – welcome La Dame (de fer) (nee Moira). This isn’t because she is an “Iron Lady” just that she likes to have her Hash shirt neatly washed and ironed.

We had visitors – Catblew and Crapper from Townsville – Welcome and hope you had fun.

Shirt passed from DV8 (well is really is a dress on her) to Tiny Tool – just because he “hollered” – you had to be there.

Raffles won by Not Yet and Dunno who generously gave his to Catblew.

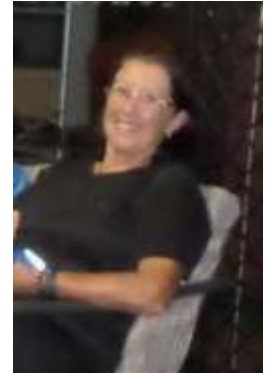

Charges to Pythagorarse for his web error. 49er, Gangbang, Stroker and Pylon just cause they missed the drink stop the first time round and were still thirsty

Royal T regaled the crowd with another joke – Red shoes could change your luck! Again you had to be there, so you’ll just have to come next week to see what antics everyone gets up to.

A great night and nosh were put on by Lesson, thank you for all your work.... And Ball’s Up ... we hope you are feeling better.
