Run 1959 – Melbourne Cup LeftOvers

It has been referred to as the run that stops a nation, the first Tuesday in November is legendary in the history of Trinity Hash House but this was different - an Acting GM, a stand in Hash Cash, a fill-in Hash Keg master and junior Hasherdabery . Could the reserve committee run the show? You could see the anticipation on their faces as the Acting GM arrived, a motley crew waiting with trepidation - some sitting, some standing but most talking shit.

The Acting GM Brother Flatulence was straight into it – not calling the pack as expected but drawing strange lines and symbols on the floor. Numbers grew as more Hashers and Hares arrived. All speculated as to what these marking meant. A Calcutta style sacrifice maybe? Then it was time - a call of the pack and Hare Sister EXTRACTIT given the floor. We were guaranteed plenty of arrows with checks and false trails, a water crossing, a drink stop and some shiggy. As it turns out there were plenty of arrows and checks on the run but not all from to-nights run, but some leftovers from the previous hash runs in the area. The walkers and runners strode fourth on their quest and crossed paths on several occasion but as the night closed in and after a run of approximately 3200 meters the runners made their way home and missed the a drinks stop of ghoulish delight in Cairns oldest resting place.

Once all had returned and with their initial thirst quenched and nibbles eaten the A/GM Brother Flatulence called for volunteers for a special event – The first THHH Melbourne Cup run which was won by Brother Layback, Brother Pecker a close second with Sister 49er bringing up the rear.

After prizes awarded and much celebration the circle was called. Sister EXTRACTIT was awarded a very high score (which will not be recorded here) for her run and drink spot. Visitors or returned runners LC & MILF had down downs while Pecker once again refused to wear the shirt and retained it for another week. Raffles were drawn, business discussed and jokes were told before an excellent Mexican styled nosh.

Another great night

A WOMAN'S POEM:

Before I lay me down to sleep,
I pray for a man, who's not a creep,
One who's handsome, smart and strong.
One who loves to listen long,
One who thinks before he speaks,
One who'll call, not wait for weeks.
I pray he's gainfully employed,
When I spend his cash, won't be annoyed.
Pulls out my chair and opens my door.
Massages my back and begs to do more.
Oh! Send me a man who'll make love to my mind,
Knows what to answer to "how big is my behind?"
I pray that this man will love me to no end,
And always be my very best friend.

A MAN'S POEM:

Roses are Red,
Violets are Buckets,
This Poem makes no sense,
I Don't Give a Shit,
Boobs!

RUN 1958... MOFO's Trinity Park

Traipse ! (An excellent ... but belated effort from DV8)

A reasonable sized pack turned up for what we all thought would be the run of the year, so off we headed on a well-marked tour of Trinity Park. Zipping in and around the streets, doubling here, false trailing there, we were relieved to get to the drink stop and finally to the back on home for some well needed snacks.

The circle was called by the GM where announced that run 1958 wasn't the year of MOFO's birth, rather the year that he lost his virginity – oh my!!! You old Dog MOFO!!! J Flatulence felt the need to give a Cruize Report before the Run Report, something about being stuck on the Comedy Cruise with Dunno and Snyce, Moana was there too and somehow they didn't manage to run out of booze – thank goodness for that!!

The run report was finally given by Flatulence – apparently MOFO took notes from Stroker on how to set a run. Score given was 3/10

1958 The Year of Moles birth, of course a charge was given for that – also of great notoriety Sharon Stone, Michelle Pfeiffer, Jamie-Lee Curtis and Madonna were also born in this year. Sputnik the space rocket came down and Explorer 1 went up Return Runners and Visitors were CK (Calculator Kid) from the UK, Mole and Flatulence.

The shirt remained with Pecker who tried in vain to give it to a recalcitrant Hasher, but as he didn't wear it on the run, he had no choice but to keep it for another week.

Raffles were won by Turtle who successfully drew out her own name – well done Turtle and Snyce who thoughtfully gave hers to CK

Charges were given from Modnoc to Moana for directing traffic, Moana to Pythag as Willis Island does exist, DV8 to Dunno for whining on the FB Fiji Interhash Page, Phythag to Mole for running through the regroup, Stroker to Pecker for turning up to Jury Duty every day, Layback for slow running, Modnoc to CK for sleeping his way all year through Hashers around Australia, Gang Bang to Royal T and La Dame for returning to the on Keg with MOFO.

Nosh was served and was delish as always, all in all an awesome night had by all.

HASH HISTORY

- 1987: A member of the Long Beach HHH USA brought a virgin to the hash. The young lady ran trail wearing high heels and a red dress, and later that night went hot tubbing with her new friends, in (and then out of?) that same little red dress.
- 1988: The San Diego HHH started the annual Red Dress Run tradition by tracking the Lady in Red down to Houston, Texas, and sending her plane tickets to the first annual Red Dress Run being held in her honour! Word had spread up and down the Coast and hashers from all over California attended. Men and women alike were required to wear red dresses. I was later told that hundreds attended. California newspapers and TV news serviced covered the event.
- "I was and still am overwhelmed at the notoriety and response! At the crowning ceremony for me at that very first Red Dress Run, I, in my acceptance speech, suggested the one thing that would make me most pleased for the annual event: I suggested that a portion of the proceeds go to worthwhile charities to benefit others and to help build a bit of a positive image for hashers . . . if that were ever possible!" –The "Lady in Red".
