Run 1963 – Juggy’s Civic Centre Silent Circle

Thirteen dedicated hashers braved the rain and assembled in the Civic Centre carpark for what would turn out to be an eventful night of hashing. The trail started as all of Juggy’s trails do, with a series of checks.

Before long most of the trail had disappeared due to the rain, but confusingly some of the trail from previous runs survived. Juggy came to the rescue with instructions on how to get to the drink stop, however some of the pack interpreted the drink stop location as Tuna Towers, while others were sure we had to go to the Salthouse, while those of us who know how to interpret Juggy-speak headed to the drinkstop at Cairns Corporate Tower.

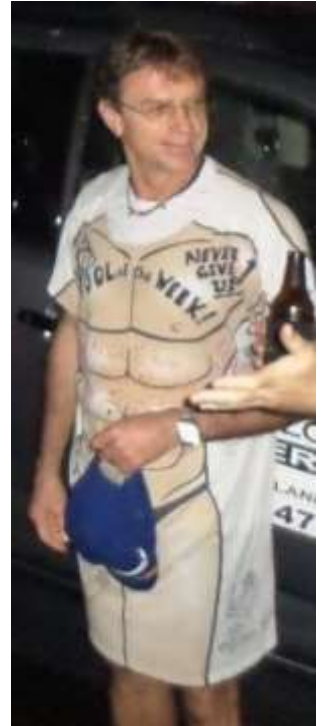

Back at the Civic Centre it got really interesting as we found a woman rolling around on the footpath in front of Domino’s Pizza with two ambulance officers trying to coax her into the waiting ambulance. Turned out that she was either drunk, stoned or both and it wasn’t long before a couple of police arrived on the scene, followed by another carload of police which was then followed by yet another van-load of police. This then begged the question – how do you have circle, charges and generally drink booze in public when the place is crawling with cops trying to deal with an already intoxicated person? The answer to this was – very quietly!!

So what followed was quite possibly the quietest hash circle in history. The run report was so quiet that I didn’t actually hear what score was awarded, followed by a whispered song while the hare discretely took his down-down. This was followed by another barely audible song for returnees/visitors Madam Slash and Dancing Queen. Layback quietly awarded the shirt to RA Gangbang for allowing it to rain on the run. Pythagorarse and Gangbang won the raffles before the main charges began. So many of the pack were charged for various misdemeanours that the down-down song was naturally quiet because there was hardly anyone left to sing it. The GM then whispered something about coming events, about which time the cops left the scene which allowed a number of jokes to be told and for things to become a bit more boisterous as would usually be expected.

By this time the ambulance had carted the drunk away from the doorway of Domino’s Pizza which allowed Juggy to collect nosh which consisted of a variety of pizzas. Everything then degenerated back into a normal hash run with hashers stuffing themselves with Nosh, guzzling beers and talking crap.

Overall a very interesting and unusual night of hashing!

Live Radio Gaffes

1. Ted Walsh - Horse Racing Commentator - "This is really a lovely horse. I once rode her mother."
2. Harry Carpenter at the Oxford-Cambridge boat race 1977 - "Ah, isn't that nice. The wife of the Cambridge President is kissing the Cox of the Oxford crew."
3. USPGA Commentator - "One of the reasons Arnie (Arnold Palmer) is playing so well is that, before each tee shot, his wife takes out his balls and kisses them Oh my god!!!!!! What have I just said?!!!!!"
4. A female news anchor who, the day after it was supposed to have snowed and didn't, turned to the weatherman and asked, "So Bob, where's that eight inches you promised me last night?"
5. Steve Ryder covering the US Masters: "Ballesteros felt much better today after a 69 yesterday."
6. Clair Frisby talking about a jumbo hot dog on Look North said: "There's nothing like a big hot sausage inside you on a cold night like this."

HIS ONE-SKIN

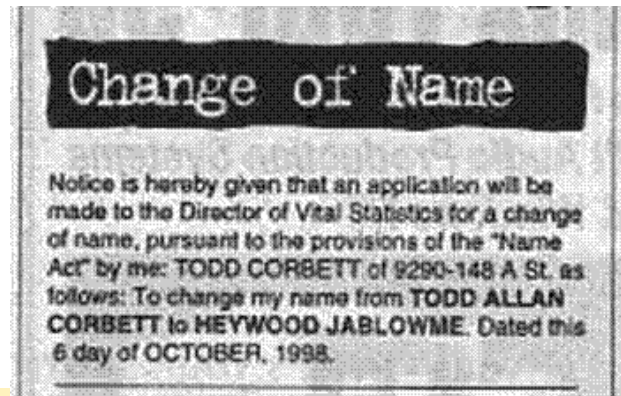

Melody - My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean

His one skin hangs down to his two skin,
 His two skin hangs down to his three,
 His three skin hangs down to his foreskin,
 His foreskin hangs down to his knee.
 Drink it down, down, down .
