Run 1964 – STROKER's SEASIDE SAUNTER

The pack of 19 assembled at the BBQ area of Trinity Beach Esplanade at the usual time to be given my usual spiel on the pending run - the pack was advised to stop at the top of the hill near Taylors Point to catch the magnificent views of our beach area.

The pack divided in two with the runners following a bush trail going right around Taylors Point for more magnificent views of Kewarra, Clifton and Palm Cove.

The runners re-joined the walkers at Moore St to run past the Trinity Tavern. the trail meandered thru parks and streets of Trinity Beach to eventually stop at Coast Watcher park for their well earned drink stop and watch all the kids have fun at the skateboard ramp.

I was awarded 5 ½ for the run which was great for a busy day as GM/Hash Cash/Grog/Nosh and Trail Master (I am starting to sound like mini Moana!). The circle was fun "BIG BANG" was anointed as a Hashman in a solemn ceremony — and people raved about the food!

Guys come and support our Christmas party next week at the Crown Hotel at cost of only $15 for keg/pub meal and two drinks at the bar. prizes will be given for best dressed Harriette and Harrier.

On a more serious note our AGPU (annual general piss up) will held in late February so we will need volunteers for all positions.— We need our members to step up and support our club so please let us know where you can help.

The HHH Prayer

Our Beer
 Which art in kegs
 Hallowed be thy drink
 Thy will be drunk
 At home
 As it is in the Pub
 Forgive us this day
 Our daily spillage
 As we forgive those
 Who spilledst against us
 Lead us not
 Into false trails
 And deliver us
 From shiggy
 For thine is the wine
 The cider and the lager
 Forever and ever
