Helmet's RAINY Forest Gardens run

though, some scaling the steep mud slides to the bridge, others leaping up and over fences or dashing up the stairs two by two. Our noble raffle winning GM, trying to keep the rabble from falling apart, went through the objectives of Trinity Northern Beaches Hash (obviously old objectives as "Getting Fit" was the first one, the GM was drowned out with laughter. Everyone started to agree with the objectives when drinking weekends and extended hangovers came into play.

Pylon and DV8 were returned runners. MOFO got the shirt for reasons only known to 49er (who was charged because she didn't wear it on the run.)

Don't say you never learn anything from Hash!

In keeping with the definitions from the dictionary, we all had to wear our protection from the rain as it just didn't stop the whole run, so was it Helmet's fault or our absent RA's?? Well Helmet put on such a good run and Prickle Magnet such good nosh - we'll blame the RA!

Mistress provided the run report, but she obviously sick of the walking in the rain, she faked twisting her ankle and faked falling to the ground, right at the drink stop (before anything was drunk!) so as she only did half the run, she gave it a score of 3 1/2. There were a few wet weather adventurers

1983 The year of the A Team and we love it when a plan comes together – and with that we ate
