Run 1985 – Remembrance Run — The Stroker Phenomenon!

The pack stood around admiring bro Stroker's rather large deck waiting for the run to begin.

The GM called for quiet and unexpectedly all went silent unnerving the GM.

Most had started the day early as this has always been a day of remembrance on the Australian calendar but today the occasion was even more auspicious - a Hash run in Trinity beach set by bro Stroker.

An evening not to be missed. Tonight's hare has rare hash pedigree, a ex-GM, past trail master and RA and currently the Assistant GM. A long time committeeman Stroker's runs have become legendary (since his retirement from running Qantas) .... and have been referred to in TH3 history as the bible of "How to set a run" and tonight was no exception.

All of us can learn from attending a Stroker run. The years of experience show with every arrow, every check or false trail. The run is carefully planned, winding through suburban roads, finding bush, shiggly, water and the occasional virgin territory - all with perfect length and timely drink stops.

After a beautiful stroll through Trinity Beach the pack were back on Stroker's large deck quenching their thirst with the ice cold drinks and feasting on the abundant nibbles that brother Stroker provides. A selection of hot and cold foods is just the start. The circle is just an interruption to the smorgasbord of food - but protocol has to be followed.

The GM calls the circle and Bro stroker is rewarded for his effort. The rest of the proceeding follow quickly with visitor, returned runners and guest invited to drink. The 2 shirts (note 2) are returned and awarded to MoFo and Dv8, this is followed by the raffle - won by (insert winners name here) a worthy winner. General business is next with the exciting news of the upcoming 2000th run (see flyer for further details). Charges are made (up), drinks are downed, songs are sung and then a joke is told. The circle is done.

Brother Stroker's feast continues where more food is provided to his fellow hasher.

The hospitality shown on the big deck of the northern beaches is a fine example to all and even drew praise from another long time hash legend.

Shit run Shit nosh Shit night (the highest compliment a hasher can receive)
