Run 1988 – CALL GIRLS's Bicentennial Run

Well a group of about 24 Hashers turned up to admire the view from Call Girl & Lambsie's lovely home. Then they rounded us up and out the door. Up hill and down dale we went through the suburb of Bayview Heights – Heights being the operative word here as there were quite a number of hill, for which our intrepid "Virgin" Hare was charged for. But it was a good trail cause most of us didn't know where we were until we came back to the main road and almost home.

Unfortunately no drink stop earned our Hare a -2 but this was regained for it being a new area so it was a 4 out of 10 run. We had a good number of returnees – Bullseye (from all over), Lambsie brought out of his retirement after 17 years, Madam Slash (only away 1 week!), Stroker, Swanker and Molè.

Shirts were brought with abundance (2) until our Tiny Tool LOST ONE ON THE RUN – NO HE WASN'T WEARING IT!!! He advised he will purchase new one – one that will fit DV8 a little better and so she won't be tripping over the shirt tails when she is next presented with one. But she was presented with the other shirt anyway!

Charges were laid Tiny Tool – for running like the wind and losing the shirt. Stroker – for actually behaving himself for once! Royal T for just having too much fun at his birthday the previous weekend, No Knickers for actually purchasing an item that wasn't RED. Moana for being able to identify headlights on very dark roads as a "Car".

Raffles were won by Gangbang and Nikko. Royal T regaled us with more jokes.

All in all an excellent night with a good run, good views, good nosh. Thank you Call Girl (& Lambsie).

Notices – .

$50 Croc Hash registration is required by end of May – Please pay at website as it will help with the organising. Or you can print out the registration and see Snyce. Apparently there are nearly 500 who have already pledged their attendance for the event.

Cooktown's 1770 Run – They are looking for Hashers to attend, so far there aren't too many, so let's support our fellow Hashers and make it a real weekend for them.

For those who know Crash Test Dummy, he is in hospital at present. We all wish him a speedy recovery and our very best wishes. ON ON CTD!!
